Board of Directors
Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co
c/o Linda Crisp, Corporate Secretary
1530 Cornerstone Blvd., Suite 100
Daytona Beach, FL 32117

Dear Board Members,

We were pleased to see the recent announcement of the upcoming resignation of Consolidated-Tomoka CEO Bill McMunn. However, we do not believe the interests of shareholders will be well served by delaying his departure, and suggest that the Board consider making Bill's departure effective as soon as reasonably practicable.

Having a strong, ambitious new CEO whose interests and compensation are directly aligned with shareholders should serve the company well. We believe this succession process is one of many steps necessary to place CTO on the proper footing for when the Florida real estate market rebounds. We are unclear as to the purpose served by Bill's continued involvement with the Company in any capacity, and believe his continued involvement could negatively impact the recruitment of a new CEO.

While considering this suggestion we remind the Board of specifics we believe to be representative of Bill's performance at CTO:

- the lack of meaningful analysis on $120 million worth of income properties purchased with shareholder funds in contravention of CTO's policies and procedures. Specifically, other than the three very rudimentary examples of income property models, management has been unable to produce any evidence of analytical work done prior to spending $120 million of shareholder funds on a portfolio of 26 income properties. This runs directly counter to CTO's own policies and procedures which state, "For each transaction, a financial model is constructed to value the acquisition property. Since property types vary, a model is created specific to each transaction.";
- the negotiation of the LPGA lease and the subsequent inaction as millions of dollars of losses accumulated on the golf operations;
- the use of imprecise and potentially misleading statements in documents mailed to all shareholders and filed with the SEC, and;
- the creation of his own compensation program in 2008.

CTO has clearly not been run in the diligent manner we believe should be expected of a public company, and ultimate responsibility for this failure should reside with Bill. We can conceive of no rational reason for a nine month grace period and an additional one-year consultancy period, at additional shareholder expense and at the potential consternation of the incoming CEO. We believe the progress of CTO will be better served by the board taking the steps necessary to conclude Bill's involvement with CTO promptly.

We believe the ultimate responsibility for demanding excellence from management rests upon the shoulders of the board members, and with the benefit of the time that has passed since CTO's announcement of the end of Bill's tenure as CEO, we hope you will disregard any social pressure which may be directed toward you to, in effect, place the interests of management ahead of those of shareholders.

We have not been directly involved with CTO's operations, nor do we desire to be. Our preference is for the board and management to work together for the long-term benefit of all shareholders. In Bill's absence, we look forward to a more collaborative management regime, an improved relationship among Wintergreen, the incoming CEO and the board, and putting the litigation between Wintergreen and CTO behind us.

To board members old and new who embrace their fiduciary responsibility and endeavor to set CTO on the path towards increased shareholder value, we thank you for your continued hard work and offer you our full support.

As it has recently been disclosed in CTO's 2011 proxy statement that Bill intends to stand for reelection to the board for another three year term, we must inform you that should Bill follow through on this, we intend to solicit votes against his reelection. Given past CTO voter turnout and voting patterns in uncontested elections, we anticipate being able to garner enough shareholder support to deny Bill the majority vote necessary to retain his seat. Accordingly, we urge him and the Board to reconsider.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ David J. Winters
