LEADING INDEPENDENT PROXY ADVISORY FIRM GLASS LEWIS RECOMMENDS CONSOLIDATED-TOMOKA SHAREHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” ALL SEVEN OF THE COMPANY’S DIRECTOR NOMINEES

*For Second Consecutive Year Glass Lewis Joins ISS in Recommending Shareholders Vote “FOR”
All of CTO’s Highly Qualified Directors on the WHITE Proxy Card Today and
Rejects the Nominees of Wintergreen Advisers LLC and the Wintergreen Fund (MUTF: WGRNX)*

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. – April 16, 2018 – Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. (NYSE American: CTO) (the “Company” or “CTO”) today announced that Glass Lewis & Co (“Glass Lewis”), a leading independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended that CTO shareholders vote “FOR” all of CTO’s highly-qualified and experienced director nominees at the Company’s 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on April 25, 2018.

CTO announced last week that Institutional Shareholder Services (“ISS”), another leading independent proxy advisory firm, also recommended in favor of CTO’s nominees. Consistent with the Glass Lewis and ISS recommendations, the CTO board of directors urges shareholders to vote “FOR” all seven of CTO’s nominees on the WHITE proxy card today.

Glass Lewis concluded: “We believe the incumbent board presents a credible defense of the Company’s performance and existing strategy and persuasively argues that the incumbent directors are better suited to oversee the Company for the benefit of all shareholders. Accordingly, we recommend that shareholders vote “FOR” each of CTO’s seven nominees on the WHITE proxy card today.”

Glass Lewis also recommended¹ that CTO shareholders vote “FOR” the advisory vote on the Company’s executive compensation, vote “FOR” the Company’s proposal to approve the Second Amended and Restated 2010 Equity Incentive Plan and vote “AGAINST” the shareholder proposal from Wintergreen Advisers LLC (“Wintergreen”).

In its April 13, 2018 report, Glass Lewis also stated:

- “Upon full review, we believe the Dissident [Wintergreen] has failed to make a compelling case for the removal of incumbent directors or for the appointment of any of the Dissident Nominees. In our view, the Dissident has not nominated any individual director candidates whose presence on the board would be justified or likely to result in a superior outcome for other CTO shareholders, from either a valuation or governance perspective.”
- “The Dissident provides limited evidence to support its assertions that the Company has underperformed or that the current strategy is unfavorable or unlikely to maximize shareholder value... we find that Wintergreen has not presented a substantive operating plan or alternative strategy other than seeking a potential sale or liquidation of the Company.”
- “We agree that Wintergreen appears motivated to pursue a sale or liquidation of the Company, potentially to serve its own interests and to the potential detriment of other CTO shareholders.”
- “In turn, we believe the board has presented a convincing rebuke of Wintergreen’s allegations, demonstrating that the current board and management’s business plan for maximizing shareholder value has resulted in improved operational performance and generally favorable returns for investors in recent years.”

Speaking about the Company’s successful performance and the results achieved by the current management team, Glass Lewis stated:

- “... We find that the Company’s proxy solicitation materials provide a fairly detailed assessment of the Company’s TSR performance that supports the incumbent board’s position that CTO has delivered strong performance for shareholders under the leadership of the current board and management.”
 - “Based on our review of the arguments presented by both sides, we believe there is reasonable basis to conclude that the Company has generally delivered adequate returns for shareholders over various relevant periods under the leadership of the current board and management...”
 - “The Company’s solicitation documents include numerous metrics illustrating the Company’s favorable performance under the current strategy and leadership of the incumbent board and management, including strong growth in revenue, operating income, earnings per share and book value per share over the last five years.

Glass Lewis rejected Wintergreen's assertion that CTO's board and management were not doing enough to reduce the discount to NAV and offered additional perspective on the Company's current strategy and compensation practices. In particular, Glass Lewis stated:

- "...We believe the Company's existing repurchase program strikes a reasonable balance between preserving financial flexibility and the ability to opportunistically repurchase shares at large discounts to NAV."
- "Given our favorable view of the Company's operating track record in recent years and the absence of a compelling counterargument from the Dissident, we find limited cause to support changing the current strategy or approach."
- "...We believe the Company maintains a generally reasonable compensation program and has sufficiently aligned pay with performance in 2017."

CTO shareholders are reminded that their vote is extremely important, no matter how many shares they own. To follow the recommendations of Glass Lewis, ISS, and the CTO Board, shareholders should vote the WHITE proxy card "FOR" each of CTO's seven nominees TODAY by telephone, by Internet, or by signing and dating the WHITE proxy card.
